Protective Industrial Products, Inc. Acquires Uniform Technology

LATHAM, NY – October 31, 2019 – Protective Industrial Products, Inc. (PIP), a leading supplier of general safety products and supplies for critical environments, proudly announces the acquisition of Uniform Technology, headquartered in Longmont, CO.

Since 1998, Uniform Technology, a respected manufacturer of high-tech specialty apparel servicing the semiconductor, electronics, pharmaceutical, biotech and aerospace industries, has specialized in providing innovative cleanroom and electrostatic discharge apparel products for contamination control.

“This acquisition of Uniform Technology expands our product offering, further solidifying PIP’s position as a leading supplier of specialized gloves, supplies and apparel to the Controlled Environment market,” said Joe Milot, President and CEO of PIP. “Most importantly, this translates to more opportunities for our distributor customers to fulfill the broad needs of industrial end users today” he concludes.

“We are thrilled to join the PIP family,” explains Susan Routt, President of Uniform Technology. Ms. Routt expands by saying, “We knew PIP was the right choice, as they are aligned with strategic Safety and Controlled Environment distributors who are focused on growing their business and adapting to today’s changing manufacturing environment.”

The acquisition of Uniform Technology, along with PIP’s recent acquisition of QRP strengthens PIP’s position as the global leader of hand protection, Controlled Environment supplies and general safety products. PIP will leverage this new partnership to provide its distributors with an expanded product offering and solutions to meet the needs of the industry today.
